2. Brief description of CCI Chair:

The main objective of the 'CCI Chair' is to provide well equipped centres of learning to intellectuals, academicians and students to undertake studies and research with an intention to understand, assess and disseminate ideas and thoughts in the area of Competition Law.

Broad Scope of Work of the Chair

A. Research studies

The Chair will draw a research agenda depending upon the terms of references (ToRs) of an item.

B. Sector studies

The Chair will take up sectors studies in accordance with the ToRs. In case of limited ToRs, more than one sector studies may also be taken up. For each study, a standard procedure - comprising (a) developing ToRs in consultation with IICA/CCI, (b) conduct of the research as per laid down methodology (c) submission of draft report and (d) finalization of report after addressing comments received is to be followed. Illustratively, the following research areas may be considered by the Chair, which is only a suggestive list and not an exhaustive list

- i. Competition law concerns in sectors involving public welfare e.g. agriculture, health services & pharmaceuticals, education, etc.
- ii. Merger control in intellectual property centric sectors such as pharma, high-tech, seeds, agro-chemicals, etc.
- iii. Big-data and competition law violation
- iv. Competition law concerns in high-tech sector: Algorithm driven anti-competitive conducts; online markets.

C. Policy papers

The chair professor will draft policy papers/ inputs in suitable formats. It is envisaged that such policy inputs will be completely driven by requirements of IICA/CCI, which may be relatable with various processes such as submissions to Parliamentary Committee, Review of Statutes/ Policies by CCI, enforcement of Competition Act by CCI.

It is also envisioned that research output of the Chair may be followed up with public events/ advocacy work with relevant stakeholders. In such instances, as per the instructions of IICA/CCI, the Chair shall carry out relevant outreach/ advocacy activities also.

D. Support in Competition Advocacy

Competition advocacy has been recognized as an essential requirement for effectiveness of Competition Act. In the context of competition advocacy agenda, the Chair shall do the following specific activities:

- i. Biennial competition awareness index to measure awareness amongst stakeholders: In order to make competition advocacy 'measurable', the Chair will develop a methodology in consultation with IICA/CCI to create a biennial competition awareness index. A biennial report on "State of Competition Advocacy in India" will be produced and submitted.

- ii. Conduct of advocacy activities as per mutually agreed annual advocacy plan: The Chair will develop an annual advocacy plan comprising of various advocacy events such as seminars/ conferences/ focused group meetings etc. The Chair will conduct at least one advocacy event per quarter in a financial year.
- iii. Induction and refresher training of officers of CCI The Chair will conduct induction and refresher training programmes for officers of CCI as per requirements indicated by CCI. The Chair will endeavor to develop training agenda and methodology in consultation with CCI. Since, such training programmes shall be on need-basis, financial implications for organizing each such training shall need to be discussed from case to case basis and be outside the core budgetary provision for the CCI Chair.
