About the Capacity Building Program

Procurement has always been a vital function of the governments and large amounts are spent in public procurement by the Central & State governments, municipal and other local bodies, statutory corporations and State-Owned Enterprises (SOE) in India. The procurement of goods, works and services is very vast both in terms of variety & volume. Considering the size of the country, the number of procurement entities as well as products / service categories, the task is highly onerous and challenges are multifarious. These challenges need to be addressed.

In India, Public buying procedures and policy instructions are based on the General Financial Rules (GFR) of the Dept. of expenditure, Ministry of Finance, Government of India. The General Financial Rules have been amended in March 2017 and Rule 149 has also been introduced in this regard. These are a compendium of general provisions to be followed by all offices of Government of India while dealing with matters of the financial nature.

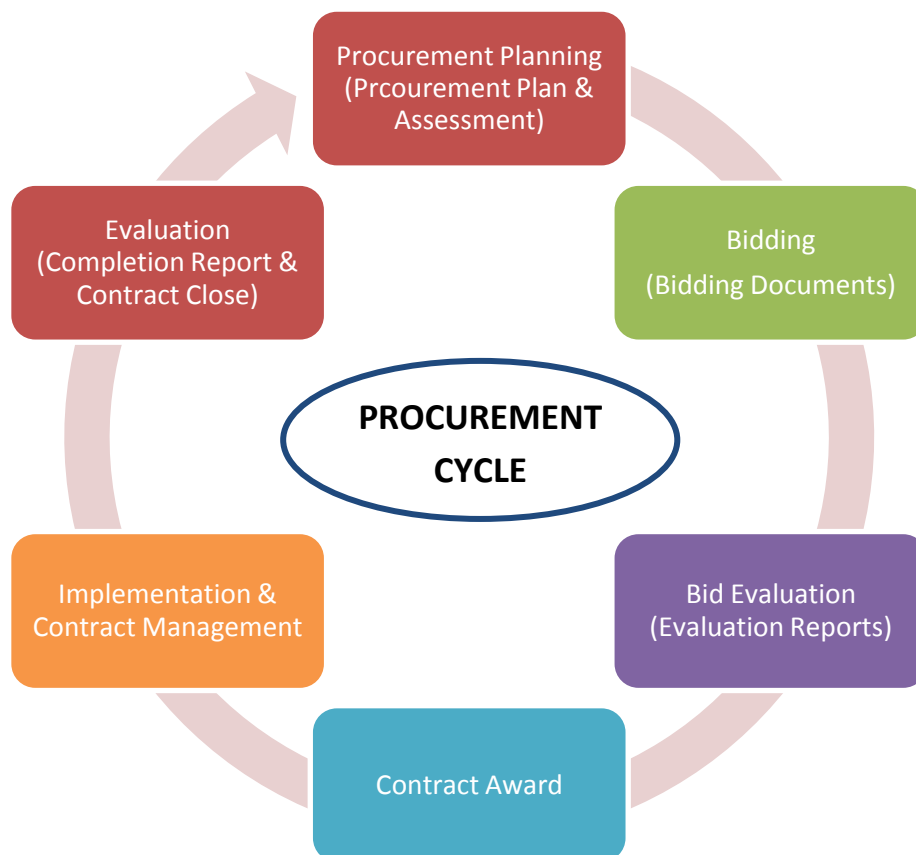

India is a large country and has a very large public institutions / bodies at national & state level besides PSUs and other autonomous organizations. Public bodies are involved in construction of roads, canals, hospitals, bridges, schools, government buildings / offices etc. The procurement of goods varies for Defence, Railways, Health, Paramilitary forces etc. and the range are enormous.

Procurement has become a specialized function in the era of globalization. The changing business environment calls for efficient, responsive and transparent purchase procedures. Today the world class organizations talk about the dedicated suppliers and emphasize on need of an efficient, transparent and effective supply chain management.

India spends up-to 20% of its GDP on Public Procurement, with some government departments earmarking as much as 50% of their annual budgets for such expenditure. In the manufacturing sector, the cost of material is sometimes up to 65% - 70% of the product cost and the quality of the finished product is heavily dependent upon the quality of material purchased, hence the impact of the procurement functions on cash flow & profitability is very high.

Sound Public Procurement policies and practices are among the essential elements of Good Governance, significantly impact the economy by generating demand and consumption, promote local industry and improve SMEs access to public procurement. Good practices reduce costs and produce timely results, poor practices lead to wastage of public funds and delays and are often the cause for allegations of corruption and inefficiency. The big question is "How to enhance efficiency & accountability becomes even more important.

Essentially, procurement means timely acquisition, purchase & delivery of goods, works and services at the best possible total cost of ownership to the customer. It includes estimate or indent preparation, tendering, contract management, catalogue management and auction and caters to procurement of all types – works, goods and services.

Considering the size of the country, the number of procurement entities as well as products / service categories, the task is highly onerous and challenges are multifarious. India is therefore an important market for Multi-nationals & Foreign Companies looking to engage in new business and diversify into India’s potential roadmap of 5 trillion markets for business.

What does Contract Management Imply?

Every contract seems to provide adequate protection when it is negotiated and signed. However, during contract performance, disputes often arise between buying organizations and their suppliers. Not having a good contract management process in place has consequences to both the buying organization and the consuming departments. If no one is managing the performance of the contract, an organization is likely to fail to meet its goals that it had for the project associated with the contract. Such failures may include delayed timelines, cost overruns, and more.

In view of demand from potential organizations/delegates for this program and with a view to clarifying and discussing various important issues that will ensure maximum efficiency & economy in public & private purchasing and to share the best procurement practices and to discuss the critical procurement issues of today and future, Indian Institute of Corporate Affairs (IICA) is organizing Four-Day Capacity Building Program on “Procurement (Policy & Procedures based on GFR, GeM & E-Procurement) and Contract Management for Good Governance: Challenges in Implementation” to ensure that:-
