About the Capacity Building Program

Procurement has always been a vital function of the governments and large amounts are spent in public procurement by the Central & State Governments, municipal and other local bodies, statutory corporations and State-Owned Enterprises (SOE) in India. The procurement of goods, works and services is very vast both in terms of variety & volume. Considering the size of the country, the number of procurement entities as well as products / service categories, the task is highly onerous and challenges are multifarious. These challenges need to be addressed.

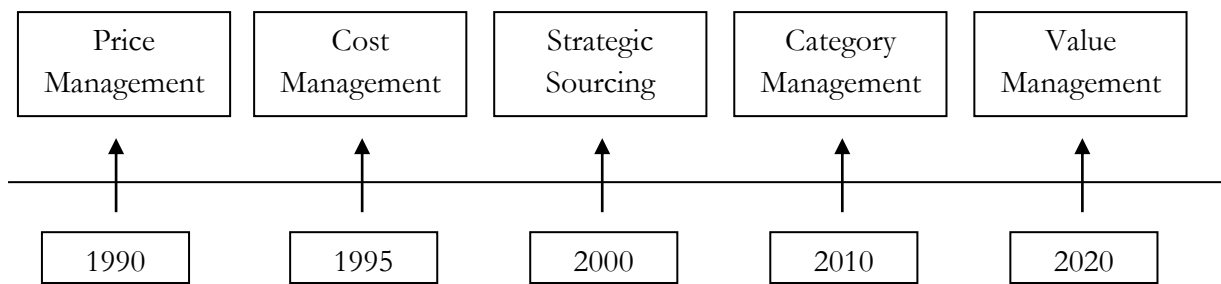

Procurement has become a specialized function in the era of globalization. The changing business environment calls for efficient, responsive and transparent purchase procedures. Today the world class organizations talk about the dedicated suppliers and emphasize on need of an efficient, transparent and effective supply chain management.

India spends up-to 20% of its GDP on Public Procurement, with some government departments earmarking as much as 50% of their annual budgets for such expenditure. In the manufacturing sector, the cost of material is sometimes up to 65% - 70% of the product cost and the quality of the finished product is heavily dependent upon the quality of material purchased, hence the impact of the procurement functions on cash flow & profitability is very high.

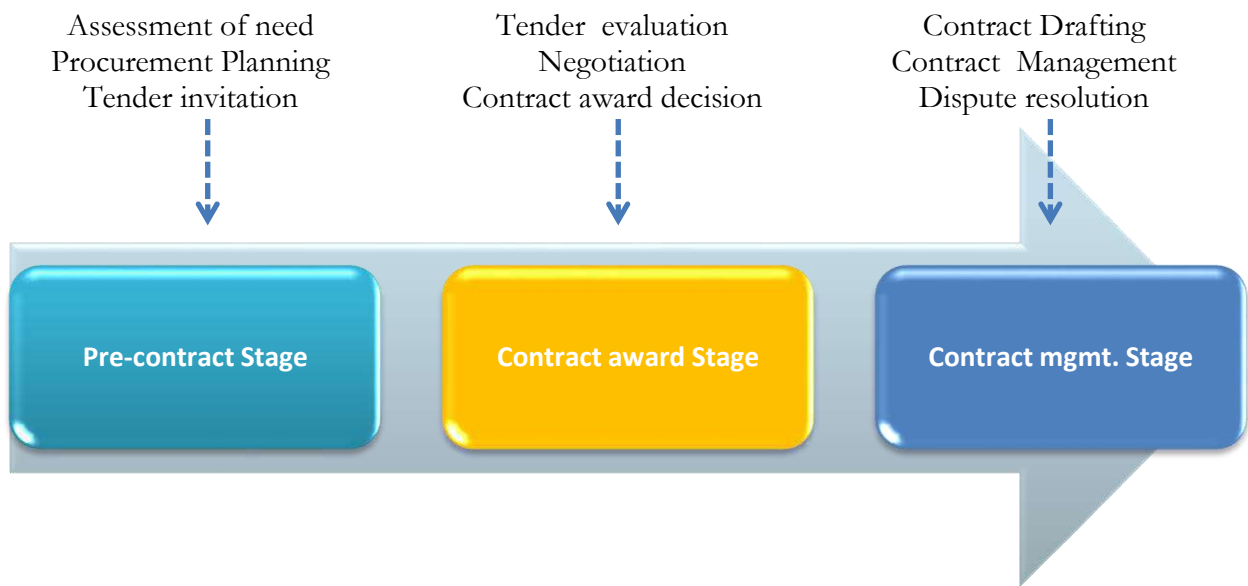

Sound Public Procurement policies and practices are among the essential elements of Good Governance, significantly impact the economy by generating demand and consumption, promote local industry and improve SMEs access to public procurement. Good practices reduce costs and produce timely results, poor practices lead to wastage of public funds and delays and are often the cause for allegations of corruption and inefficiency. The big question is "How to enhance efficiency & accountability becomes even more important.

India is a large country and has a very large public institutions / bodies at national & state level besides PSUs and other autonomous organizations. Public bodies are involved in construction of roads, canals, hospitals, bridges, schools, government buildings / offices etc. The procurement of goods varies for Defence, Railways, Health, Paramilitary forces etc. and the range are enormous.

Key Procurement Trends

Public Procurement & Contract Management

E-procurement – A Fully Digitized Procurement Process

E-procurement increases transparency as well as competition, simplifies and speeds up tendering process, eliminates human error, helps in seamless sharing of information, provides ease of operation and leads to quicker decision. It also facilitates pre and post contract management. A fully digitized Procurement process is imperative for the Government striving to minimize disruptions in delivering the day-to-day necessities to the people. E-Procurement plays the critical role in enabling a digital government. From increasing transparency, value for money, communication and innovation, E-Procurement not only ensures continuity but can drive value.

E-Procurement plays the critical role in enabling Digital Procurement Processes and support the entire procurement value chain

- ✓ Digital requests for quotations
- ✓ Sourcing to contract negotiations
- ✓ E-signatures and verification
- ✓ Supplier risk management
- ✓ Supplier financial analysis
- ✓ Procurement risk analysis
- ✓ Digital procurement network collaboration

Adoption of Government e-Marketplace (GeM) in Procurement

GeM – Government e-Market place is the national portal to make public procurement transparent & simple. Conceived by Government of India, GeM is an end-to-end e-commerce platform for procurement of goods & services by Government organizations. GeM offers all modes of procurement (direct purchase, L1, bid & reverse auction) in a paperless and cashless manner. The GeM portal is currently being used by almost all departments/ organizations of Central and State Governments as mandated mandatory by the Government of India.

Key Stakeholders of GeM

Buyers

- Central Govt.
- Central PSUs
- State Govt.
- State PSUs
- Autonomous Bodies

Sellers

- OEMs
- MSE
- Startup
- Authorized Resellers
- Service Providers

With the Central Government Ministries and undertakings buying goods & services of at least Rs.5 lacs to Rs 7 Lacs crore worth of every year, the big question is “How to enhance efficiency & accountability of public & private sector through “Procurement (Procedures & Contracting), Tenders, Bids & Contract Management” becomes even more important. Considering the size of the country, the number of procurement entities as well as products / service categories, the task is highly onerous and challenges are multifarious.

Government Market Is Not As Complex

Globally, with $ 10-12 trillion in market opportunity at stake, there are many companies / corporates, high value work / projects within a few weeks and building highly impactful business serving Government customers. India is therefore an important market for Multi-nationals & Foreign Companies looking to engage in new business and diversify into India’s potential roadmap of 5 trillion markets for business.

In India, Public buying procedures and policy instructions are based on the General Financial Rules (GFR) of the Dept. of expenditure, Ministry of Finance, Government of India. The General Financial Rules have been amended in March 2017 and Rule 149 has also been introduced in this regard. These are a compendium of general provisions to be followed by all offices of Government of India while dealing with matters of the financial nature.

What does Contract Management Imply?

Every contract seems to provide adequate protection when it is negotiated and signed. However, during contract performance, disputes often arise between buying organizations and their suppliers. Not having a good contract management process in place has consequences to both the buying organization and the consuming departments. Such failures may include delayed timelines, cost overruns, and more.
