

IICA requires 10 Field Researchers from Local institutes of Bihar for the purpose of Household Data collection for a Baseline Study which is to be conducted before commencement of CSR project in Motihari, East Champaran.

The details of the project are as follows:

Program to be implemented on the basis of Baseline Study	Integrated Rural Development projects focusing on development of the village and villagers
Project Location:	East Champaran, Motihari
Thematic Areas for Study:	1. Integrated Rural Development
Objectives of the project	<input type="checkbox"/> To ascertain overall needs and requirements of the local population to make a model village by implementing different developmental activities in the area.

Requirement:

The Field Researchers must be proficient in the Local Language spoken in the East Champaran Area of Bihar.

- Each Field Researchers will be provided a Project Stipend of Rs. 1000 per day.
Eligibility criteria: Graduate or Post Graduate in Social Work with experience in data collection / survey. Must be proficient in local Language.

The Company will make arrangements for food, accommodation and local travel in the villages.

Survey Methodology:

The Field Researchers are expected to complete the data collection process within 7 days.

Once selected, we will train the students with respect to data collection process. The research tools such as Questionnaires and Interview Schedule have been prepared by IICA.

Focussed Group Discussion with:

- Farmers
- SHGs

Structured Interview:

- Gram Panchayat

Deadline:

If interested, We request you to share your CV/Resume by 17th January 2019.

TOR_ Baseline Study _ AICL

For any further queries, please feel free to get in touch with us: National Foundation for Corporate Social Responsibility : nfcsr@iica.in , garima.dadhich@iica.in