

IICA conducts Training Programme for Independent Directors

The School of Corporate Governance and Public Policy, IICA, conducted a Training Programme for Independent Directors on March 27, 2015 at Alstom India Ltd. and Alstom T&D India Ltd., Noida.

The capacity development programme focused on skill development and awareness generation w.r.t the new regulations and consequent impact on the Board members in order to enable them to contribute effectively to the board's functioning.

The training programme focused on three integral areas of development for Independent Directors including What Boards do, Functions, Roles and Challenges of Independent Directors in Audit Committee & Accountability and Liability of Independent Directors.

The programme was conducted by Dr.Asish K Bhattacharyya, Professor and Head, School of Corporate Governance & Public Policy and Dr.Garima Dadhich, Assistant Professor from the School of Corporate Governance & Public Policy, IICA.

The programme was well received by the participants who found it beneficial and informative.

Alstom has been associated with India's progress for a century and has a long-standing reputation for providing highly innovative and sustainable solutions for meeting the country's energy and transport requirements. Since its inception in the year 1911, the company has been at the forefront of leading-edge technology at every level, serving these three infrastructure markets essential to economic, social and environmental development of India.

Training Programme for Independent Directors organised at Alstom India Ltd. and Alstom T&D India Ltd., Noida